Casting Call

for a photo shoot

We are looking for people with intellectual disability

We want people who have experience being in front of a camera

We want them to star in information about making decisions

SACID and CID are working together on the My Life My Choices Project.

Our project is about decision making.

People with intellectual disability are sharing their experiences of decision making.

This is helping us to make information resources about making decisions.

We need photos to make the information resources about decision making.

We need people with intellectual disability for a photo shoot.

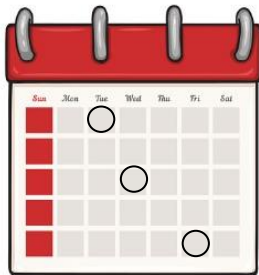

We will use the photos for our project.

To be in the photos you have to have an intellectual disability.

You need to have experience being in front of the camera.

You need to be happy for us to use your photos.

You have to come to 3 meetings. The meetings will be early in 2022.

We will pay you for your time.

To apply please send us your headshot or photo and completed application form.

A headshot is a photo of your head and shoulders.
