Intellectual Disability Awareness

Intellectual Disability Awareness & Inclusion Training for Health Professionals

In this 2 hour workshop SACID help to improve your understanding of intellectual disability and how you can be inclusive. Co-presented by a person with intellectual disability, they will give you valuable insight and recommendations from their experiences interacting with the health system.

Topics covered in this workshop include:

- Understanding intellectual disability
- Models of support
- Breaking down stereotypes
- Communicating with people with intellectual disability
- Practical tools and resources for use in a health setting
- Key questions to ask new patients
