About SACID

SACID is the South Australian Council on Intellectual Disability.

All the work we do at SACID is about making the community more inclusive for people with intellectual disability and their families.

About the SACID Reference Group

SACID Reference Group is the sub-committee of the SACID Board.

A sub-committee is small group of people that:

- Represents a larger organisation.
- Give ideas and feedback about important topics.

What happens at the Reference Group?

The Reference Group meet once a month on the first Monday of each month.

The meetings go for 2 hours.

The Reference Group will:

- Have a say in what SACID do.
- Give advice to the SACID Board.
- Share ideas and personal experiences.
- Be the voice of people with intellectual disability in South Australia.

Meetings are at the SACID office.

People can also join online on Microsoft Teams.

Reference Group members are paid $100 for each meeting they go to.
